Mike Moakley, Editor

Happy New Year to all! I hope all of you have enjoyed The Holidays...

Just a few items about the newsletter. First, I will remind you that in the upcoming year, you will be receiving each issue electronically rather than the "old" hard copy version. Should this not reflect your wishes, I encourage you to contact the National Office and let them know what your preferences are.

Second, let's discuss copyrights as they apply to us. Articles that are not individually copyrighted by the author is considered part of The SCAM, whose copyright owner is Space Coast Area Mensa. Should you copyright your own work? I would consider it only if I plan to use the article for another purpose. For example, if you submit an article to us, then later you wish to publish it in another newsletter. If you did not copyright the work, it becomes SCAM's property and you would not be able to use it elsewhere without our permission. If in doubt, copyright it.

Third, let's discuss OPINIONS. All of us have opinions on a great variety of topics and have no problem expressing these opinions. However SCAM and Mensa (as a whole) has no opinions. Among other things, that means no member can express an opinion and claim that this is Mensa's opinion. It also means that we, as a Mensa organization, cannot affiliate with any type of advocacy organization, regardless of the reason(s) for doing so.

Your opinions are always welcome here, but they will NEVER be the opinion of The SCAM or of Space Coast Area Mensa.

The SCAM sells classified ad space. SCAM members, non-commercial, no charge. Others: $20 full page; $10 half-page; $5 quarter-page per month, we offer discounts for multiple insertions, and we can help with layout and design.

Subscriptions: SCAM members, included in dues; others, $10 for 12 issues.

Coffees are generally divided into three groups. Brazils include all the coffee grown in Brazil, Milds are C. arabicas grown anywhere but Brazil, and C. robustas are coffees of that species grown anywhere.

Disregarding species for the moment, these are some of the country names that you may find to designate the source of the bean in the package. Some locations produce only one species of coffee, others produce both. The names in parenthesis are alternates, sub names for districts, the traditional shipping port, or some special designation. This list is not exhaustive!

You will note that the countries fall into one geographic zone covering Hawaii, sub-Saharan Africa, northern South America, the Caribbean, Central America, the Middle East, and South Asia. These areas form a belt around the world, north and south of the equator. It is only here that the climate is suitable for growing coffee.

Most coffees sold are blends of two or more single coffees. The large commercial houses, like those that make Scotch Whisky and Champagnes, blend their coffees to achieve a consistency of flavor year after year. Chase and Sandburn will always taste like Chase and Sandburn.

Specialty coffee roasters will make blends for specific purposes or tastes such as breakfast, after dinner, Italian, or espresso.

Incidentally, two coffees, mocha and java, have become words synonymous with coffee in two different worlds. Mocha means coffee flavored in culinary French. A mocha parfait means coffee flavored ice cream. Java is an American slang term for any coffee.

Members Present: Joe Janson, Karen Freiberg, and George Lebovitz.

Officer/Committee Reports (details may be found in the footnotes):

Treasurer's Report: The Treasurer's report was not available at the time of the meeting. (Reports for the months of August, September, and October were subsequently submitted via email.)¹

Testing: Testing coordinator, Hank Rhodes, reported via email³.

Joe and Karen briefly reviewed some of the highlights of the November meeting for my benefit.

Joe is still trying to contact Thomas G. Thomas regarding the proposed new bylaws to determine what step(s) should be taken next.

He will also try to contact the community events editor at FL Today, as well as an appropriate contact person with the Crimson newspaper at FIT, to see if we can get some publicity for the SCAM to try to broaden our exposure and recruit new members.

The November Monthly Get Together at Red Ginger, featuring Irene Cummins, a member of the local Wiccan community, was extremely well attended and received. The next meeting will be on February 13th, and George will try to get Jodi James, Director of the Brevard office of the Florida Cannabis Action Network, to give a presentation on the history and information about marijuana.

The next meeting was set for Tuesday, January 5th, 2016 at 6:00 pm in the home of Karen Freiberg at 876 Buxmont Ct., Rockledge, FL 32955.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:20 pm.

Minutes of the November, 2015 ExComm Meeting

The ExComm met at the home of Karen Freiberg at 876 Buxmont Ct., Rockledge, FL 32955, on Tuesday, November 3rd, 2015, called to order by LocSec Joe Janson at 6:12 pm.

Members Present: Joe Janson, Karen Freiberg, T C Shaw, and Dennis Logan.

Officer/Committee Reports (details may be found in the footnotes):

Treasurer's Report: The Treasurer's report was not available at the time of the meeting.

Testing: Testing coordinator, Hank Rhodes, reported via email².

The minutes of the October, 2015 as published in the SCAM were approved.

Joe contacted Wynn Rostek and obtained a copy of the proposed new bylaws, then forwarded them to Thomas G. Thomas for review.

The October Get Together at the Red Ginger restaurant was poorly attended, probably owing to the torrential downpour that night. Despite having an audience of only four people, speaker Bill Muckler provided a lively and entertaining evening discussing his book, "20/20: A Clear Vision for America."

The November meeting will feature Irene Cummins, a member of the local Wiccan community.

The proposal to join the Cocoa Beach Chamber of Commerce as a non-profit was again discussed. As a member, SCAM could then participate in events, perhaps staffing a booth and handing out literature.

Dennis suggested opening SCAM events to the general public to attract potential new members, perhaps advertising them in local papers or on local radio. Participating in regional trivia contests (north, central, south) was discussed as well as the issue of reaching out to younger people. Many other ideas were brought up as well, but the ExComm is hampered by a lack of resources to follow up on them.

The December Monthly Get Together at Red Ginger was cancelled due to the proximity to Christmas.

The next meeting was set for Tuesday, December 1st, 2015 at 6:00 pm in the home of Karen Freiberg at 876 Buxmont Ct., Rockledge, FL 32955.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:52 pm.
